HOUSE BILL NO. 437 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 437, A bill to be entitled "An Act making it unlawful to hunt, take or kill wild turkey or wild deer; fixing a penalty; providing for open season in certain cases and counties; providing that in certain counties wild deer may be hunted with but one dog, etc., and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Bradley offered the following (committee) amendments to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 437 by striking out all above the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

H. B. No. 437, A bill to be entitled "An Act making it unlawful to hunt, run, take or kill wild deer with dogs in Harris county; fixing a penalty; providing that this act shall in no wise affect the kind and number of such game that may be taken or killed as provided by present laws, and declaring an emergency."

Amend House bill No. 437 by striking out all below the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful to hunt, run, take or kill any wild deer with dogs in Harris county.

Sec. 2. That this act shall be cumulative of all other laws with respect to the wild game mentioned herein except where this act is inconsistent with existing law, in which case the provisions of this act shall control.

Sec. 3. Any person violating any provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by fine of not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1000).

Sec. 4. The fact that hunting deer with dogs has been lawful in the county of Harris, although adjoining counties did not permit such hunting, and discriminates against Harris county by allowing persons from the said adjoining counties to hunt deer with dogs in Harris county without reciprocal arrangements, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring all bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended, and that this act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The amendments were severally adopted.

House bill No. 437 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 437 ON THIRD READING.

Mr. Bradley moved that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that House bill No. 437 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE RE- PORT ON HOUSE BILL NO. 111.

Mr. Burns of Walker, Chairman, submitted the following conference committee report on House bill No. 111:

Committee Room,
Austin, Texas, March 2, 1931.

Hon. Fred H. Minor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Hon. Edgar E. Witt, President of the Senate.

Sirs: We, your conference committee, to whom was referred House bill No. 111 for the purpose of adjusting the differences between the House and the Senate, have had the same under consideration, and beg to advise that we adjusted said differences and recommend that House bill No. 111, as amended, do not pass, but that the following substitute bill do pass in lieu thereof:

A BILL

To Be Entitled

An Act amending Chapter 21 of the Acts of the Second Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, providing for an open season or period of time when it shall be lawful to take or kill squirrel in certain counties; providing penalties for the violation thereof; repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict therewith, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Chapter 21 of the Acts of the Second Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to hunt, take or kill squirrel, except during the months of May, June, July, October, November and December of any year in the following named counties: Colorado, San Patricio, Titus, Morris, Smith, Walker, San Jacinto, Waller, Fort Bend, Rusk, Matagorda, Brazoria, Bowie, Cherokee and Austin.

Sec. 2. Any person who shall hunt, take or kill any squirrel in violation of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than ten ($10) dollars nor more than fifty ($50) dollars.

Sec. 3. All laws and parts of laws and all special acts of the Legislature in conflict herewith are expressly repealed.

Sec. 4. The fact that there is no adequate law regulating the killing or taking of squirrels in the counties named in this act, and the fact that the present laws are confusing, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and the same is hereby suspended and that this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

HOUSE BILL NO. 12 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 12, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Section 33 of Senate bill No. 111 of Chapter 61 of the Second Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, providing qualifications and prerequisites for directors of building and loan associations, based on the assets and the amount paid in on the shares held, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Savage offered the following (committee) amendments to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 12 by striking out all after the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. That Section 33 of Senate bill No. 111, passed at the Second Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, known as Chapter 61, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 33. Directors—Qualifications. The corporate powers of every building and loan association heretofore organized under the laws of this State, or which may be incorporated under this act, shall be exercised by a board of directors, who shall elect the officers of the associations. The by-laws of every building and loan association may prescribe other qualifications for directors, but no person shall be eligible to election as a director unless he is the owner in good faith and in his own right on the books of the association of shares upon which at least two hundred dollars in cash has been paid; and if the association be one located in a town or city having a population of more than 20,000 and less than 100,000 inhabitants, there must have been at least five hundred dollars paid in on the shares held by him; and if the association be one located in a town or city having a population of more than 100,000 inhabitants, there must have been at least one thousand dollars paid in on the shares held by him; and such amounts shall not be reduced by withdrawal or pledge for a loan with the association, or in any other manner so long as he remains a director of the association. Provided, however, any person who is the owner in good faith and in his own right on the books of the association of shares upon which two hundred dollars in cash has been paid, shall be eligible to election as a director in an association having assets of less than three hundred fifty thousand dollars, regardless of the location of the association, and such amount shall not be reduced by withdrawal or pledge for a loan with the association, or in any other manner, so long as he remains a director of the association. Every director, who if after his election as such ceases to be the owner in his own right of the necessary qualifying shares, or who shall pledge or hypothecate with such association of which he is a director, the shares necessary to qualify him as such director, shall thereby vacate his office. The Banking Commissioner of Texas may remove any officer or director of any such building and loan association for just cause specified by him and after ten days' notice in writing to such person. Any officer or director so notified of the intention of the Commissioner and, feeling himself aggrieved by such removal, shall have a right to apply to the district court of his residence for a writ of injunction to restrain such removal, as in ordinary injunction cases."

Sec. 2. The fact that associations having assets of less than three hundred fifty thousand dollars which are located in cities and towns having a population of 100,000 or more have found it difficult to elect a suitable number of directors of their associations because of the disqualifications under the present law, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three separate and several days in each house should be suspended and that this bill be placed on its third reading and final passage, and to be in effect from and after its passage, and the said rule is hereby suspended, and it is so enacted.

Amend House bill No. 12 by striking out all above the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

A BILL

To Be Entitled

An Act to amend Section 33 of Senate bill No. 111, Chapter 61 of the Second Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, providing for the qualifications of directors of building and loan associations; providing the amount of share holders must have paid in on their shares of stock before they are eligible to be elected directors; providing that the minimum amount required to be eligible shall not be withdrawn or in any manner hypothecated, and declaring an emergency.

The amendments were severally adopted.

House bill No. 12 was then passed to engrossment.

HOUSE BILL NO. 12 ON THIRD READING.

Mr. Savage moved that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that House bill No. 12 be placed on its third reading and final passage.
